

Faculty of Emergency Nursing Competency Awards

FEN recognise that working patterns and the way experience in emergency nursing is gained is evolving. The FEN model ensures that all emergency nurses develop: core competencies, age related competencies and mental health competencies in addition to one optional unit in order to be awarded the following titles:

Associate of FEN (AFEN)	Member of FEN (MFEN)	Fellow of FEN (FFEN)
AFEN - if attain adult & children competencies	MFEN – if attain adult & children competencies	FFEN - if attain adult & children competencies
AFEN (Adult)	MFEN (Adult)	FFEN (Adult)
AFEN (Child & Young Person)	MFEN (Child & Young Person)	FFEN (Child & Young Person)

	Compulsory	Optional Choose a minimum of one:
Associate of Faculty of Emergency Nursing (AFEN)	Core competencies	Adult & older person
		Child and young person
	Adult & older person OR Child and young person	Minor injury
		Major trauma
	Mental health	Prehospital care
Member of Faculty of Emergency Nursing (MFEN)		Major incident
	Core competencies	Adult & older person
		Child and young person
	Adult & older person OR Child and young person	Minor injury
		Major trauma
Fellow of Faculty of Emergency Nursing (FFEN)	Mental health	Prehospital care
		Major incident
	Must hold MFEN	Adult & older person
		Child and young person
		Minor injury
	Core competencies	Major trauma
		Prehospital care
		Major incident